

Whitworth Stained Glass

Established in 1970, Whitworth Stained Glass offers clients a one-on-one creative relationship with the founder and owner of the company. We provide our services with a small studio attitude of giving individually personalized service with a level of quality unsurpassed by any size studio.

If you need quality work for your church, your home, a restaurant or a business—we have the knowledge, skill and personal attention to take care of your stained glass art. Our work has resulted in repeat commissions and hundreds of satisfied customers.

In addition to new stained glass, we have extensive experience in historic preservation and conservation of existing stained glass.

Whitworth Stained Glass is dedicated to creating stained glass to the highest standards of our art. We unreservedly give God the glory in all we do and know that we are blessed to be able to have worked in stained glass more than 40 years. We invite you to contact us to discuss your project.
